INTERNSHIPS PROVIDE HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE
by Shelly Kamanitz, Director of Marketing & Creative Services

NewTV internships help motivated students succeed in today’s competitive job market by providing hands-on experience in all areas of television production, post-production, marketing and graphic design.

NewTV’s Original Programming Department employs a number of high school and college students, most of whom assist with the production and post-production of the Emmy® award-winning show The Folklorist. Northeastern University junior Shelby Levinson did an outstanding job assisting in these areas for the first season of The Folklorist and in various capacities for NewTV events. Inspired by her work at NewTV, Shelby wrote and directed her first short film, The Girl from the Third Floor.

Newton North High School senior Rachel Brown is another rising star at NewTV. She has been helping with production and editing of The Folklorist, as well as managing the fine arts and special events film coverage at her school.

by Anastasia Bogomolov, Digital Marketing Specialist

NewTV has recently finalized construction on its brand new state-of-the-art Training Center for conducting regular media and production classes as well as specialty workshops. NewTV instructor and Member Services Coordinator, Michael Sills, as well as a number of expert guest instructors, now have the ability to teach with a powerful Apple iMac desktop, an NEC HD projector, a Sony 3D Blu-Ray player and JBL Stereo wall-mounted speakers. Complete with individual Apple iMacs, the Training Center can accommodate up to ten students per class session. The center is outfitted with the latest Adobe Creative Cloud software, including Premiere Pro for video editing; After Effects for compositing; Illustrator, InDesign and Photoshop for graphic design; Audition for digital audio editing and Contribute for web publishing and website management.

NewTV class memberships are now open to non-Newton residents, with the Training Center serving as the newest facility addition for encouraging creativity and education in the Newton community and beyond. While NewTV offers over 20 courses each (Continued on page 3)
MISSION STATEMENT

NewTV is a non-profit Newton-based organization dedicated to providing the diverse Newton community with a platform for opinions, news and local information not generally available from commercial or public media. NewTV also offers training, a media facility and content distribution while supporting the First Amendment right to free speech of the Newton community.

State, designed new print and web marketing materials and left with an impressive print portfolio, landing jobs with Puma and Hasbro. Newton North High student Hannah Schindler was a tremendous help with the quarterly newsletter, flyers and other print projects. Her experience at NewTV helped develop her design skills in preparation for Quinnipiac University, where she is now an interactive digital design major and the design editor of the student-run paper.

Andre Khatchaturian and Chrystyan Oliveira are two of Newton News’ most recent interns.

Andre, a post-graduate at Boston University, is currently working on general assignment stories. Chrystyan, a sophomore at MassBay Community College, is preparing to produce a sports segment for the show by building relationships with high school sports departments.

Qualified students interested in furthering their education in any of these areas can find an internship that suits their needs and apply online at newtv.org/internships.

Quarter, the Media Center also features several additional workshops throughout the year. Members and interns can take any class in four of our production tracks: Studio Production, Field Production, Post-Production, media-related workshops, and other exciting classes including 2D Animation, The Art of the Interview, Social Media and You, Film Composition, Film Theory, and Storytelling for Film & TV.

If you’re interested in learning more about the NewTV class schedule and registration, please visit newtv.org/classes.
Winter Volunteer Spotlight
NewTV would like to recognize Sam Stulin for all his time and effort at the station. Sam has volunteered with a number of productions, both field and studio, including Neighborhood Cooking with Candy Gold and Civic Action, as well as interning with The Folklorist. He is set to attend NYU in the fall.

For his contributions to NewTV, Sam will receive a gift card to be determined later. Be on the lookout in the summer newsletter for our Spring Volunteer Spotlight.

COMMUNITY CHANNEL UPDATE
by Michael Sills, Member Services Coordinator

NewTV has two big events coming up here at the studio that we think you should know about. This year’s Producers’ Meeting will be held on April 1 at 6pm. It’s not just for active producers; volunteers and those interested in producing are more than welcome to join as we discuss NewTV, ideas that you may have in mind, and new exciting things to expect in this coming year. Have a friend who may be interested in being a part of NewTV? Bring them down on April 8 from 6–8pm for our Open House. Active and prospective members are invited to take a tour of the new facility and learn a little about what we’ve been up to over the past year. There will be plenty of food as well as some great giveaways. Any new member who signs up on or after April 8 will be entered into a raffle for a great grand prize, while any active member who refers a new member after April 8 will be entered into a separate raffle for other great prizes. For more information on both events, keep an eye on newtv.org.

THE EDUCATION CHANNEL: SPRINGING INTO SECOND SEMESTER!
by Melinda Garfield, Production Services Manager

The flowers are blooming and so are new programs like The Hollywood Makeover Show and The Adventures of Donkey Ollie – all premiering on the Ed Channel. Sports have been rolling in this year thanks to Newton North TV. We have two fabulous new interns: Alexa Johnson and Natalie Nonken, both from Northeastern University, who will be with us until July! Interns Rachel Brown, Katie Rubino, Brianna Gershkowitz, Sam Thornley, Marielle Bosco and Alexandra Kayhart are preparing for season 2 of The Folklorist. Lasell College is back at NewTV this semester holding their annual TV Production class and we can’t wait to see their Must See DVD episodes this year! NewTV welcomes Nick Corvinus, the new Education Channel Coordinator. Look for Nick’s bio and contributions to the Ed Channel in the summer newsletter.

GOVERNMENT CHANNEL UPDATE
by Stephen M. Kessinger, Government Channel Coordinator

NewTV renews its commitment to be a leading source in producing programming that covers government affairs at a city, district and state level. We are pleased to announce new collaborations with city departments that will explore Newton’s history, culture and means of daily operation. From Historic Newton, the Newton Free Library or the Department of Public Works, we’ll be providing information that links the city to you. Watch Newton News for agenda previews of upcoming School Committee and Board of Aldermen meetings. Our elected leaders at the State House will become a part of ongoing discussion panels that will share the latest progress and initiatives. Look for updates throughout 2014 as we continue to increase the breadth of our programming that will add significant depth to what NewTV provides its viewers, making our efforts more engaging as well as relevant to their lives.

UPDATE
by Jenn Adams, News Director

Newton News is celebrating 20 years! Tune in to the show and see where previous interns are today! Over 40 former interns are currently working in the broadcast television industry, from reporters to anchors to working behind the scenes in television and film production, and they’re helping Newton News commemorate its 20th year. Special programming will last all year long, so make sure to tune in. Also, we’re always looking for student interns to join the Newton News team. If you or someone you know would like to get the hands-on training, including camera work, editing and reporting, consider signing up for an internship today.

MEMBERSHIP
It's easy to become a NewTV member. Any Newton resident, non-profit organization or business can join NewTV for a small annual membership fee. Once you've signed up, you are eligible to take any classes or workshops offered by NewTV, use any of NewTV's equipment and book the Conference Room or Studio, all free of charge with your membership. For more information, visit newtv.org/membership.

COMMUNITY PARTNERS
NewTV offers partnership opportunities to businesses and non-profit organizations alike, in the form of program sponsor, event sponsor, newsletter sponsor and web-related sponsorship. As a state-of-the-art media center in the greater Boston region, NewTV can provide your business with maximum exposure for a minimal cost. By becoming a Community Partner you will increase your company's visibility through our cable channels, active website, widely-read newsletter and other event materials distributed regularly to our viewers and members.

Your partnership with NewTV will help to support our successful Lipof internship program, a newly created scholarship fund for aspiring college-bound students and new informational and educational programs for our ever-growing viewership. Our menu includes three-year commitments for each of the levels of sponsorship. NewTV will also entertain in-kind service partnerships if it benefits both parties.

For more information, visit newtv.org/community-partners.

INTERNSHIPS
NewTV offers interns unique opportunities that aren’t available elsewhere. Instead of answering phones and working at an assignment desk, you could cover a community event for Newton News, edit a documentary for the Government Channel, work on your own project with the Education Channel or even design marketing and promotional materials for the station. At NewTV, you get the hands-on experience that you won’t get anywhere else. For more information, visit newtv.org/internships.

CLASSES
NewTV features over 20 classes each quarter, and also hosts several additional workshops throughout the year focusing on a range of topics. To use NewTV's equipment, you must first be a member in good standing and have attended our monthly Orientation session. You can then choose to take any class in all three of our production tracks: Studio Production, Field Production or Post Production (editing). You may also take any of our other computer-based or continuing education classes. For more information visit newtv.org/classes.
